

Unbroken

Ashes Remain

Shut down tell me there's gotta be
A way out from underneath the gravity
My heart is breaking down
I can't shut out and silence the confusion
Spun around and lost in the illusion
My mind is breaking now

I'll walk through the fire
Just to feel you next to me
Hold on to desire
You're the only hope I see
I hate what I have been
Falling apart within
Dying to be unbroken

Lost in a broken generation
Desperate for a revelation
These walls are coming down

I'll walk through the fire
Just to feel you next to me
Hold on to desire
You're the only hope I see
I hate what I have been
Falling apart within
Dying to be unbroken

I'll walk through the fire
Just to feel you next to me
Hold on to desire
You're the only hope I see
I hate what I have been
Falling apart within
Dying to be unbroken
