

Anywhere

Ashford & Simpson

There may be other hands
But they're just imitation
Cause they can't and never will
Make me feel the same vibration

And there may be another voice
That may sound just as sweet
Could there be another pair of arms
To make me feel so complete

I'd know you anywhere
I'd know you anywhere
I'd know you anywhere...

Said I would know you
Anywhere you go
Said I would know you
I'd know you, baby
Anywhere you go
Said I would know you, babe
Anywhere you go
I'd know you, baby
Anywhere you go

You don't know
How long it's been
You couldn't fool me
No matter where or when
I would know you, yeah

A thousand hands may touch me
With their eyes closed
Oh, baby, I'd know you
Bu the tenderness
I would know you by the
Sweet, sweet tenderness

A thousand voices may call
My name out loud in a crowd
But I'd know you, oh, by the
Melody that flows from you

Said I would know you
Anywhere you go...

Change the world if you want to
I'd know you, baby
I'd know you

A thousand hands may touch me
With their eyes closed
Oh, baby, I'd know you
Bu the tenderness
I would know you by the

A thousand voices may call

My name out loud in a crowd
Melody that only flows from you

Said I would know you
Anywhere you go.
Said I would know you
Anywhere you go...
