

Destiny

Ashford & Simpson

I love you and that's simply all there is to it
Nothing I can do about it
When the spirit comes and you know it's real
Go on and express how you feel

Chorus:

Who's to say? Who's the wisest of us all?
Are you the one to say
You're gonna be short or tall
What you got to say about destiny
Just let it happen and see

Like it or not, I must live by what is deep inside
Ain't talking about pride now
If loving you turns out a mistake
Guess that's just a chance I'll have to take

Repeat Chorus
