

So So Satisfied

Ashford & Simpson

So full, so warm
Like being dried out after the storm
New birth running through my veins
Looks like that clear day finally came

Refrain:
Feeling high
And so, so satisfied

This must be all there is
'Cause only love brings with it joys and tears
I won't try to understand
I surrender all into your hands

Repeat Refrain
