Always Something

Ashland

Always something just around the corner
Coming, coming to take me out
I'm just a fragile girl who's been broken
With nothing, nothing to save me now

I don't have the strength to run every day
And this I've made it ain't going away
I must turn around and face my mistakes
I can't live this way

I've always thrown caution to the wind
I thought I'd get away with it
But here I am again
Yeah, here I am again

Always someone trying to teach a lesson
Learning, learning nothing at all
Cause I'm just a girl who was never protected
Still I take the blame for every fall

I don't have the strength to run every day
And this mess I've made it ain't going away
I must turn around and face my mistakes
I can't live this way

I've always thrown caution to the wind
I thought I'd get away with it
But here I am again
Yeah, here I am again

I'm still here somehow
Angels watch me now
I'm still here somehow
Angels watch me now
I'm still here somehow
I'm still here somehow

I've always thrown caution to the wind
I thought I'd get away with it
But here I am again
Yeah, here I am again

Always something just around the corner
Coming, coming to take me out
