

False Shepherd

Ashland

I'm finding it hard to believe
That no one will ever hurt me
Guess I'm weaker than I thought
I let you rip me apart
I let you rip me apart

Who knew I'd looked up to you
But you flew higher and higher
In your own head [?]
Where you left me here on the ground

Karma's a bitch don't you ever forget
Justice still come even when I forgive
I reach for you when I needed help
And then I watched you watch me as I fell
You watched me, you watched me, you watched me as I fell

Who knew I'd looked up to you
But you flew higher and higher
In your own head [?]
Where you left me here on the ground

All this time you spent conceded
Tell me lies but they weren't needed
Your time will come
And you can't change, what's done is done

Who knew I'd looked up to you
But you flew higher and higher
In your own head [?]
Where you left me here on the ground

All this time you spent conceded
Tell me lies, but they weren't needed
Your time will come
And you can't change, what's done is done
