

Motivation

Ashland

All these holidays are just
Smoke and mirrors, smoke and mirrors (mmm)
Every other day I
See it clearer, see it clearer (mmm)

Nothing's gonna change till it changes in me
Nothing's gonna change until nothing can break me

Just another fall, they won't throw me a line
Just another call saying not this time
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)
Just another door that somebody shut
But you can be sure I'm gonna open one up
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)

I used to wonder why my
Stars would not align, stars would not align (mmm)
It put me under cause I
Looked for the lies instead of looking for where I thrive (now I see now I see, mmm)

Nothing's gonna change till it changes in me
Nothing's gonna change until nothing can break me

Just another fall, they won't throw me a line
Just another call saying not this time
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)
Just another door that somebody shut
But you can be sure I'm gonna open one up
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)

Tell me all the reasons I'm not good enough
Using all the stones you throw to build me up
Every no is just another one, another one
Tell me all the reasons I'm not good enough
Using all the stones you throw to build me up
Every no is just another one, another one

Just another fall, they won't throw me a line
Just another call saying not this time
It's just another, another motivation

Just another fall, they won't throw me a line
Just another call saying not this time
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)
Just another door that somebody shut
But you can be sure I'm gonna open one up
It's just another, another motivation
(Mmm, mmm)
