

No Good

Ashland

You feel like the rain coming down on the sea
You take away the pain cause your love is pure ecstasy
You ya feel like the sun shining down on my shadow
You ya feel like a drug high and low

But I know you're no good no good
And I know you're no good no good

Love is a rush 'til it takes a turn
I won't ever learn

You feel like the wind blowing kisses on my skin
You are the fire within burning in me 'till I give in baby
You ya feel so right and I know so well that you're wrong
You look inviting tonight and we both know that you're not

But I know you're no good no good
And I know you're no good no good

Love is a rush 'til it takes a turn
I won't ever learn

Maybe it's all me
I just keep coming back for more
Maybe I'm naive
I just keep coming back for more cause

Love is a rush 'til it takes a turn
I won't ever learn
Love is a rush 'til it takes a turn
I won't ever learn
