

Shut Down

Ashland

I shut down...

Looking out from the inside
Caving in, people pass by Watching, waiting for my ending to being

I'm an expert at burying the feelings
When I get hurt you would never know a thing
Pay no attention to the girl behind the curtain

But I'm screaming from the inside
Feel like I'm losing my mind
And every time that I try to cry out
I shut down...

Reckless, that's what I once was
Restless, now I'm only frozen
Hollow, so low, don't wanna fight it anymore

I'm an expert at burying the feelings
When I get hurt you would never know a thing
Pay no attention to the girl behind the curtain

But I'm screaming from the inside
Feel like I'm losing my mind
And every time that I try to cry out
I shut down...
I shut down...

I'm a fighter till the end
If I break I'll stand again
May be broken at the moment, at the moment

I'm screaming from the inside
Feel like I'm losing my mind
And every time that I try to cry out

But I'm screaming from the inside
Feel like I'm losing my mind
And every time that I try to cry out
I shut down...
