

your place

Ashley Cooke

My spare time and my spare key
Don't go to your front door
And I don't keep that old Jeep
In your driveway anymore
And my toothbrush ain't on your bathroom sink
Haven't been to your side of town in weeks
You're the reason this thing broke
So you should already know

It ain't your place to walk up, say hey
Ask how I've been at some party
It ain't your place to ask my friends
When you see 'em out if I'm seeing somebody
You don't get to call me up 'cause you're drunk
Two AM, say you miss us
Nah you don't get to care where I'm waking up
These days, it ain't your place

Don't reach out to my family
When their birthdays come around
And don't act like you're happy
For me when a dream works out
If I met someone or if I didn't
Honestly it's none of your business
Anyway
'Cause at the end of the day

It ain't your place to walk up, say hey
Ask how I've been at some party
It ain't your place to ask my friends
When you see 'em out if I'm seeing somebody
You don't get to call me up 'cause you're drunk
Two AM, say you miss us
Nah you don't get to care where I'm waking up
These days, it ain't your place
No, it ain't your place
No

Don't say "come over", don't swear that you're different
You made your bed and I ain't sleeping in it

It ain't your place to walk up, say hey
Ask how I've been at some party
It ain't your place to ask my friends
When you see 'em out if I'm seeing somebody
You don't get to call me up 'cause you're drunk
Two AM, say you miss us
Nah you don't get to care where I'm waking up
These days, it ain't your place
It ain't your place
