

A Crush (Is Just A Lack Of Information)

Ashley Kutcher

Backseat of this car, packed arm-to-arm, we're leavin' late 'cause
The party's gone too slow
Tension and tequila, then I feel ya grab my hand but Nobody even knows

You're closin' the distance between us
Perfect in this moment
Can we just hold it?

Now we're underneath the porch light
Oh my God, it's been a long time
I've been waitin' for this you and I, you and I
But, honey, I know how it all works
We'll get close and then we'll crash and burn
So I won't ever let this spark ignite, play with fire
So if a crush is just a lack of information
I don't wanna learn

Let's not be impatient, keep me waitin', things are better when
There's so much left to know
Seriously beggin', unturned page that leaves you wonderin'
Which way this could go

You're closin' the distance between us
Perfect in this moment
Can we just hold it?

Now we're underneath the porch light
Oh my God, it's been a long time
I've been waitin' for this you and I, you and I
But, honey, I know how it all works
We'll get close and then we'll crash and burn
So I won't ever let this spark ignite, play with fire
So if a crush is just a lack of information

I don't wanna learn (I don't wanna learn)
I don't wanna hurt (I don't wanna hurt)
I don't wanna fall in love and lose ourselves to the real world
(No)
So I don't wanna learn (I don't wanna learn)
'Cause I don't wanna hurt (I don't wanna hurt)
I don't wanna give my best to just find out you're the worst (You're the fucking worst)

'Cause, honey, I know how it all works

We'll get close and then we'll crash and burn
