

Get Up!

Ashley Kutcher

We've tried drying your eyes
Watching you cry 'til you fall asleep and
We've tried giving you time
Saying, "It's fine" then you let him back in
We've been, here by your side
Ride or die so don't get it twisted, love
We get that you miss him but

Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!
Girl, you gotta get out of his truck
I'm sorry to be the one who's gotta break the bad news with a little tough love
Girl, you gotta go out and get drunk
To the dive bar or maybe hit a club
You look too good to be laying on the couch
Waiting for a man that never shows up
Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!

Two, three

Go ahead and get dressed, paint your lips red
Little black dress make a man stop breathing
Impress, make him obsess
Until you forget that you ever seen him
Right now, I know you got doubts
You'll ever get out of the way you're feeling
But you better believe it

Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!
Girl, you gotta get out of his truck
I'm sorry to be the one who's gotta break the bad news with a little tough love
Girl, you gotta go out and get drunk
To the dive bar or maybe hit a club
You look too good to be laying on the couch
Waiting for a man that never shows up
Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!

Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it
Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it

Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!
Girl, you gotta get out of his truck
I'm sorry to be the one who's gotta break the bad news with a little tough love
Girl, you gotta go out and get drunk
To the dive bar or maybe hit a club
You look too good to be laying on the couch
Waiting for a man that never shows up
Girl, you gotta, girl, you gotta get up!

Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it
Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it
Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it
Go, go, go, girl, you gotta go out and get it
