

Plot Twist

Ashley Kutcher

I'm pretty sure I should've closed the book on us
But I'll never cause you're a real page turner
And boy I just can't get enough
I should know better
But I've been thinking about it again
Girl, stop it
I should be erasing your number
Block it
Run to the front door when I hear you knocking
And lock it
But fuck it

I'm a sucker for a plot twist
For your soft lips
So there I go letting you in
I'm a sucker for your nonsense
Little toxic
Little bit of never knowing how it'll end
(No)
I'm on the edge of my seat wondering
Will you stay here with me, honey?
Cause you be leaving every weekend
Keep on calling it our very last kiss
But I'm a sucker for a plot twist

And everytime I think I'm finally letting you go
You show up again and somehow we're in your basement, wasted
Tearing off our clothes, neither one innocent

I've been thinking about it again
Girl, stop it
I should be erasing your number
Block it
Run to the front door when I hear you knocking
And lock it
But fuck it

I'm a sucker for a plot twist
For your soft lips
So there I go letting you in
I'm a sucker for your nonsense
Little toxic
Little bit of never knowing how it'll end
(No)
I'm on the edge of my seat wondering
Will you stay here with me, honey?
Cause you be leaving every weekend
Keep on calling it our very last kiss
But I'm a sucker for a plot twist

And all of my friends telling me
Girl, he's not it
He ain't the one, better run
Yeah I got it
Maybe I'm blind, my sight guess I lost it
Cause I want it
I want him

I'm a sucker for a plot twist
For your soft lips
So there I go letting you in
I'm a sucker for your nonsense
Little toxic
Little bit of never knowing how it'll end
(No)
I'm on the edge of my seat wondering
Will you stay here with me, honey?
Cause you be leaving every weekend
Keep on calling it our very last kiss
But I'm a sucker for a plot twist
