

Pulling Teeth

Ashley Kutcher

Now I know that it's all true
That you've been with her, said they saw you
Why's the truth so hard to break through
Got caught and you ran like you always do

All my friends they keep on saying
I just should stay
But they don't know you like I do
Show me it's no mistake
That I'm still contemplating
Coming back to you

You always asking me why, why I'm so angry
It's only cause I care, about you baby
And all I ever wanted was to see understand
Our conversation shouldn't be like pulling teeth
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
Pulling pulling pulling
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
Pulling pulling pulling teeth

Let you go then I followed you
Told all of my friends and my family too
That you were the only love I ever knew
Regret all I said when I defended you

Only matters what I say
I can't turn off my brain
And they don't know me like you do
I put everything at stake
For us to really make it
Really make it through

You always asking me why, why I'm so angry
It's only cause I care, about you baby
And all I ever wanted was to see understand
Our conversation shouldn't be like pulling teeth
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
Pulling pulling pulling
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
Pulling pulling pulling teeth

I keep thinking that you'll change
But everyday it's still the same thing
And it shouldn't, it shouldn't be like

It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like

Pulling pulling pulling
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
It shouldn't really be like
Pulling pulling pulling teeth
