

Silent

Ashley Kutcher

It's six AM
And we're in your bed
And you're just looking at me with everything unsaid

I should go to sleep
Or just up and leave
I should call a car before I say what I might mean

Or is it just a
Combination of this late intoxication
And these thoughts won't quit
Or is it worth the Conversation of a hopeless situation
And these thoughts

We're probably better off
Keeping it silent
Nothing can go wrong when you keep it quiet
No one needs to know just where my mind's at
That's for you to guess
I'll keep it private
Keep it
Keep it

You want to know
But I keep it close
Rather be a mystery
Than just the punchline of your joke

You can say the words
Or I never will be yours
Rather be the one that got away
Than half to say it first

Is it a
Combination of this late intoxication
And these thoughts won't quit
Is it worth the
Conversation of a hopeless situation
And these thoughts

We're probably better off
Keeping it silent
Nothing can go wrong when you keep it quiet
No one needs to know just where my mind's at That's for you to guess I'll keep it private
Keep it
Keep it

Keep it silent
My friends think you're no good
But damn I'm biased

But you don't need to know
When I've been crying
I don't know how you keep it cool
I'm dying

Keepin it

You know me
Oh, I keep it silent

You know me
Oh, I keep it silent

You know me
Oh,
You know me
Oh,
I keep it silent

You know me, no
You know me
Oh,
I keep it silent

Oh,
I keep it
