

Easy Going

Ashley Monroe

Something's on my mind
Telling me it's time
To let go of holding on
We tried everything
For the life of me
I can't just go along

Is it any wonder why we're going under?
We should've seen it coming our way
It's like I finally woke up to nothing left to hold up
Knowing it'd be harder to stay

Makes it easy going
Easy going
Makes it easy going

When you can't undo
Things you can't get through
I need a lucky thread
No more days to waste
Still [?]
More [?] and less regrets

Is it any wonder why we're going under?
We should've seen it coming our way
It's like I finally woke up to nothing left to hold up
Knowing it'd be harder to stay

Makes it easy going
Easy going
Makes it easy going

Only so much you take then you break
And it's easy going
When it isn't worth the fight, goodbye
And it's easy going (easy going)

Only so much you take then you break
And it's easy going (easy going, makes it easy going)
When it isn't worth the fight, goodbye
And it's easy going (makes it easy going, easy going)
(Makes it easy going)
