

I'm Trying To

Ashley Monroe

I'm trying to for the sake of me and you
Just keep at it like nothing happened
I should let you go I know you're trying to move on
I'm trying too

I'm trying to do everything that I know to do
I call you up but I can't get through
It's a pill that won't go down
You keep trying to dance around
I'm trying too

How long do you try before you let it die?
What do you need to know before you know?
Trying to read your mind is like driving when you're blind
If only all this trying made it so

How long do you try before you let it die?
What do you need to know before you know?
Trying to read your mind is like driving when you're blind
If only all this trying made it so

I'm trying to God knows I am
Make it different but it isn't
I don't blame you for trying to change the truth
I'm trying too

I know I should let you go but I can't leave you alone
I'm trying to
