

Hillbilly

Ashley Ryan

Billy was the kid from down the road
Never broke a sweat but always had the dough
He cheated and lied his way to the top
Swiping daddy's card was his only job

But Billy ain't used to being told no
Once he sees what he wants he can't let go
But when it comes to me he gonna have to learn
'Cause if he don't, then Billy's gonna burn
Yeah

Why don't you understand me?
Quit wasting my time, it's just so silly
You're knocking on the wrong door
Barking up the wrong tree
Rubbing me the wrong way and you'll see
The side of me that ain't too pretty
You're hiking up the wrong hill, Billy

There is a whole lotta Billy's think that they're the GOAT
They can win a woman's heart with a car or a boat
So if it never comes [?] sweet talking
Say these words and just keep walking
Yeah

Why don't you understand me?
Quit wasting my time, it's just so silly
You're knocking on the wrong door
Barking up the wrong tree
Rubbing me the wrong way and you'll see
The side of me that ain't too pretty
You're hiking up the wrong hill, Billy

Why don't you understand me?
Quit wasting my time, it's just so silly
You're knocking on the wrong door
Barking up the wrong tree
Rubbing me the wrong way and you'll see
The side of me that ain't too pretty
You're hiking up the wrong hill
You're hiking up the wrong hill, Billy
