From the time you caught my eye
I knew that I would need you
Some force I got pulled into

And when you smiled, my oh my
You know exactly what you're doing
You might just leave me ruined

People may stare
What's the good girl doing
With the boy others beware

But I don't care
Let's go somewhere
The feeling that you're giving me can't compare

Let's be the main characters of our story
Let's run away tonight
I don't care I don't care what they say
I'll la la la la love you anyway

Let's be the main characters of our story
Kiss me in the moonlight
I don't care I don't care what they say
I'll la la la la love you anyway

Ohhh Ohh Ohh

I see danger in your eyes
Call me psycho but I like it
I need you I'm an addict

With you everyday's a surprise
Everything we do together
You make it an adventure
