

The Rest Of My Life

Ashley Tisdale

I've got a feeling inside of me,
Running out through my veins.
It's like electrical energy,
A world's about to change.
It's an open road,
So here I go!

The rest of my life,
Is starting tonight!
Feels like I'm finally on my way!
I'm looking ahead,
Can't tell where it ends,
But I'm gonna take a leap of faith!
And I'm gonna hold on tight,
And ride this ride,
The rest of my life!

I'm gonna go for it all out,
I know there's no guarantee.
But I've been given a chance and now,
What's next is up to me.
I'm gonna set my sights,
So light those lights!

The rest of my life,
Is starting tonight!
Feels like I'm finally on my way!
I'm looking ahead,
Can't tell where it ends,
But I'm gonna take a leap of faith!
And I'm gonna hold on tight,
And ride this ride,
The rest of my life!

If all the world's a stage,
I'm here to take my place.
I know I'll always find a way to shine!

The rest of my life,
Is starting tonight!
Feels like I'm finally on my way!
I'm looking ahead,
Can't tell where it ends,
But I'm gonna take a leap of faith!

The rest of my life,
Is starting tonight!
Feels like I'm finally on my way!
It starts with a dream,
Of who I could be.
Wherever it takes me,
I can't wait!

So I'm gonna hold on tight,
And ride this ride,
The rest of my life!
The rest of my life!

The rest of my life!
