

Toxic

Ashnikko

You can't stand to see me shine
Better buy a visor
You don't ever cross my mind
What's a sheep to a tiger?
On your horse, so high
Swear to God, I'm higher
Now you begging for a dime
I'ma throw you a fiver

Begging for, begging for
Begging for some relevance
As soon as I pull up on you
Scare you like a skeleton

You can't stand to see me shine
Better buy a visor
You don't ever cross my mind
What's a sheep to a tiger?

Leeches, leeching
Wanna juice me, peaches
All eyes on me, peepers
You all jeepers-creepers
Call me a fucking diva
I'm an overachiever
I'm a knockout, anaesthesia
Give me a breather

Heard the gossip, heard a rumour
That you said you made me who I am
You think you're the man
You're so toxic, like Britney, bitch
I drop you just because I can
You think you're the man
Bitch, please

You can't stand to see me shine
Better buy a visor
You don't ever cross my mind
What's a sheep to a tiger?
On your horse, so high
Swear to God, I'm higher
Now you begging for a dime
I'ma throw you a fiver

Begging for, begging for
Begging for some relevance
As soon as I pull up on you
Scare you like a skeleton

You can't stand to see me shine
Better buy a visor
You don't ever cross my mind
What's a sheep to a tiger?

Self-made, self-paid
How dare you speak my name

Where were you yesterday?
So lame that I'm your only claim to fame
No way, cliché, you grown man playing games
I'm on point like ballet
You three-headed snake

Heard the gossip, heard a rumour
That you said you made me who I am
I drop you just because I can

Begging for, begging for
As soon as I pull up on you

You can't stand to see me shine
Better buy a visor
You don't ever cross my mind
What's a sheep to a tiger?
