

Forever At Your Mercy

Ashram

Your smile's a butterfly
Your eyes a two flames fire
You skirt around my nights like a summer moon
Lighting up my place but still not mine to hold

Here I am and here I'll stay
Here I am
Forever at your mercy

Your skin's a forbidden dream
Your taste a cool grapevine
All you give is grace and beauty in trembling shades
Please just realize you've got me hypnotized

Here I am and here I'll stay
Here I am
Forever at your mercy
