

Endless Wave

Ashton Irwin

The world is wakin' up
The sunlight peakin' over the hills
I love to watch the mornin' go by
It's movin' so fast I could cry

You can't resist the change
You're surfing in this wave

One, two

The condors flyin' above
He watches all of my love
The grass is waving at me
My worried mind lets me be

Can't predict the wave
The season's gonna change anyways

(Ooh)

The lightning strikes on the ridge
Endless horizons a glow
Who knew the wisdom it hid?
So what the hell do I know?

You can't resist the change
You're surfing in this wave

(Endless waves)
(Endless waves)
(Endless waves)
(Endless waves)
(Ooh)
(Endless waves)
(Endless waves)
(Endless waves)

You can't resist the change
You're surfing in this wave
Can't resist the change
You're surfing in this wave
