

Matter Of Time (Interlude)

Ashton Irwin

From the ground up, don't you burn it down
Everybody's got the chance to turn it around
Rebuild it like a vase, or a shattered crown
Dive into the ocean and you'll never drown

Darkness shows up, don't you let it grow
The light will shine in, then your heart will know

That all of these things
That cause us pain inside
Will come and go

When the roses bloom and the record don't scratch
Close your eyes, don't you ever look back
Painful lessons are a perfect tool
Schools in session and the number 1 rule

Ah
It's all just a matter of time
Ah
