

The Canyon

Ashton Irwin

One two three

When the light has gone away
And it hurts to face the day
Your old man was just the same
You ain't know to turn the page

You can see the fire on the mountain
Many men are a victim to the canyon
I don't see nobody taking action
Many men are a victim to the canyon

This whole world has got me crying
See my teardrops on the floor
Oh you think about just dying
Right now you've got to go

You can see the fire on the mountain
Many men are victim to the canyon
I don't see nobody taking action
Many men are victim to the canyon
You can see the fire on the mountain
Many men are victim to the canyon
I don't see nobody taking action
Many men are victim to the canyon

(The Canyon)
He's a sad boy, don't be mad boy
'Cause you never had a dad boy
Can't deny boy
(The Canyon)
So you hide boy, gonna die boy
Getting harder to deny boy
Gonna die boy
(All alone, all alone, all alone)

You can see the fire on the mountain
Many men are victim to the canyon
I don't see nobody taking action
Many men are victim to the canyon, yeah

Fire in your head
Lonely in your heart
Rip the world apart
Rip the world apart
Fire in the head
Lonely in your heart
Rip the world apart
Rip the world apart
Fire in your head
Lonely in your heart
Your heart, your heart

My soul lady, levitate me
Take me to the sky
My soul lady, never gave me
Through my darkest nights

My soul lady, levitate me
Take me to the sky
My soul lady, never gave me
Through my darkest nights

Now I'm coming out of the dark
Now I'm coming out of the dark
Now I'm coming out of the dark
