

Anytime

Asia

As a child, we played the game
Fought the war, but felt no pain
Arm to arm, we left the skin
Then said the words, remember them

Oh, never a moments doubt
Oh, feel it, scream it loud

Anytime that you call
Anytime if you fall
Anytime I'll be there for you
Any moment of fear
Anytime say the prayer
Swear that our word is true

Should I go
Should I stay?
I won't turn my head away
Cross the line, the great divide
So kill the silence, where we hide

Oh, never a moments doubt
Oh, feel it so scream it loud

If clouds fall, stand tall
As mountains climb from endless sea
Call out, fear not
Bring back that memory
