

Moon Under the Water

Asia

In the movement of the waves
Feel the rushing of the wind
You're in everything I see

Like a visionaries dream
Preaching to the silence
It's waiting for me

Like a moon under the water
There's a sky under the sea
This world is like an ocean
An it's drowning me
There's a moon under the water

Throw a stone into the pool
See the ripples run forever
And, time, for longer still

See the moon under the water
And the sky under the sea
This world is like an ocean
An it's drowning me

There's a moon under the water
There's a sky under the sea
