

Parallel Worlds / Vortex / Deya

Asia

There's a vision I see
A reflection of me
In a fragment

That is frozen in time
On a luminous line
For a moment

And somewhere deep in the night
There's a girl
And she feels how I feel
'Cause we're living in PARALLEL WORLDS

Seems like she'll never know
How my solitude grows
And I shudder

To think I can't touch
What I'm craving so much
For I love her

Somewhere deep in the night
There's a girl
And she feels how I feel
