I been drinking
And I've been thinking
That maybe it's not time to fall in love yet
Maybe I need to go deep in
Deep in on myself
And how I need a little help
To get back to who I'm being
I'ma need more than weekend
Need some time to really let it sink in
Oh I for all of the days that I cried
Till this one night I decided
I just gotta get my shit right like

Girl
You're never gonna find
A little peace of mind
If you don't treat yourself betta
Girl
You'll never be loved
The way you deserve
If you can't learn to love you betta
Girl
You never gonna change
If you can't rearrange
Your thoughts and keep your head up
Girl

Thinking I was always done wrong
Like I never had choice in it at all
Like was I blind and didn't see the signs
And didn't chose to stay
Damn was it all my fault
Then I came to realize
I use to fantasize
Like It was never you before
In love wit an idea after all
Wonder why every time I fall like
Why
For all of the days that I cried
Till this one night I decided
I just gotta get my shit right like

Girl
You're never gonna find
A little peace of mind
If you can't treat yourself betta
Girl
You'll never be loved
The way you deserve
If you can't learn to love you betta
Girl
Your never gonna change

Ok

Beep beep I still don't got the keys to my Jeep
The promises I made at 18 feel like Deceit
What a crime
It's always on my mind
I said that I would heal this shit
But never had the time
Cuz I'm always on the go
And I'm never solo
I'm grateful for the highs
But I be really feeling low
Like these hoes are deranged
My mistakes are the same
It seems like life is stagnant
And like it will never change like

Rest
Eat
Stress
Repeat

Pain
Chains
Drowning
Deep

I'm just going wit the flow
Repetitions all I know
Feeling so insecure
But I have to finish the show
We could do this together
Ain't gotta do it on my own
And we could all be better
But too busy throwing stones
You feeling stressed out
Like your home just not a home
Like this poem is not a poem
I promise you are not alone
It's all a facade
We all wanna be great
But the time keep slipping
And it's feels like it's too late

Keep going through same stress
Just for times sake
Keep eating all the same shit
Just on a different plate
Nothing is ever wrong
The win is never gone
You are just another queen
Sitting on different throne
