

FEEL GOOD

Asiahn

Sometimes instead of jumping out my bed
I'd rather watch some anime and lay right here instead
Don't wake up till it's sundown
Touch me until I'm worn out
Wash dishes when I feel like
Nobodies feelings to think about, oh ah
My alone is never lonely
Something I had to grow to see
That I'm so good with just me

Cuz self love is the best love
Don't need no one else love
I can just get faded
Lay here naked
My myself love
Looking in the mirror and I tell myself these truths
That I'm so glad to wake up as you

Don't it feel good, oh ah
Don't it feel good, ooh
Don't it feel good, ooh
Don't it feel good
Feel la la, feel la la, feel la la, feel la la, feel la la

Sometimes I don't wanna run the streets
I'd rather stay at home where there is no one there to please
I write and paint and sip and I'm my only company
I love my time with just me, ooh
My alone is never lonely
Something I had to grow to see
That I'm so good with just me

Cuz self love is the best love
Don't need no one else love
I can just get faded
Lay here naked
My myself love
Looking in the mirror and I tell myself these truths
That I'm so glad to wake up as you

Don't it feel good, oh ah
Don't it feel good, ooh
Don't it feel good, ooh
Don't it feel good
Feel la la, feel la la, feel la la, feel la la, feel la la

La la la la la la
Yeah yeah yeah ooh
Da da da da da da
Ooh ooh
Yup that's right
There's only one you in this whole world
And it's should feel good
To just be that
You
