Where you been at
Out there wit dem hoes
In relationships
Leaving me alone
Why would you
Take so damn long
To find me
I done been through some shit
I'll admit
The lies and cheating the disrespect
I was so over it
I went back outside
Cuz I won't take no shit
I was cool I was minding my business

Then there came you babe
You came the blue babe
Wasn't looking for you babe
But now that you're here

Can I
Be your home
Always your free
So stay With me
For ever and ever and ever
Can I be your home
Always I'll be
Please stay with me
Forever and ever and ever
I'll be your home

Where you been at
Out there wit dem hoes
In relationships
But they didn't deserve love
Mistreated you
I'm so glad they fucked up
It's wrap cuz we up and it's tucked
You done been through some shit
I'll admit
The Lies and cheating the disrespect
You was so over it
You went back outside
Cuz you won't take that shit
You was cool you was minding your business

Then I came through babe
I came out the blue baby
With something brand new babe
Something you couldn't lose

So I'll
Be your home
Always I'll be
So stay With me
For ever and ever and ever
Can I be your home

Always I'll be
Please stay with me
Forever and ever and ever
I'll be your home
