

Lead

Asiahn

I'm used to doing everything for myself
And I ain't never waited for a man
'Cause there ain't that many left till I met you (damn!)
I swear you did somethin' to me
And that's real I know you did somethin' to me
But I ain't gon fight it 'cause it feels good to me yeah
I got this thing where I can't lose control
And I gotta start each move just so I know how things will go
I think my decision makin' is bad
'Cause of all the heartaches I've had in the past

So this time you take the lead
I'll let you take the Lead
Oh oh oh, I'll let you take the lead
Even though it's hard for me
I'll let you take the lead
Oh, baby, take the lead
Please, baby, take

I wasn't tryna take it away from your manhood
But I gotta thought that things won't be right unless I do it
Damn, I swear you did somethin' to me
And that's real, I know you did somethin' to me
But I ain't gon fight it 'cause it feels good to me yeah
I can't leave well enough alone
Let you move first, and I follow
Just sit back and let it flow
'Cause I got issues, trust issues
'Cause everything from in the past
I swear that shit don't last

So this time you take the lead
I'll let you take the Lead
Oh oh oh, I'll let you take the lead
Even though it's hard for me
I'll let you take the Lead
Oh, baby, take the Lead
Please, baby, take

Pick up the phone 'cause I'm calling
I'm sick of the pride and the bullshit
No worries 'cause you said you on it
Did you mean it 'cause I believed it
Wherever you go, yeah, I'm coming Together, no, we can't be fucked with Just lead me some kobe and shaq shit
And I mean it, do you believe it?

I'll let you take the Lead
Oh oh oh, I'll let you take the lead
Even though it's hard for me
I'll let you take the lead
Oh, baby, take the Lead
Please, baby, take

I'll let you take the lead
