

Like You

Asiahn

Yeah

Posted at the spot, but it ain't my steeze
I ain't into clubs, there's nobody for me in there, oh
I got one at home, don't appreciate me
Keep blowing my high, I just need to breathe somewhere, oh

But then there's you, looking like you do
Giving all the vibes, the ones that I'm into
You know I got a girl and I can't get with you
Maybe another lifetime, this just ain't the right time

All my love is waiting for somebody like you (You)
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time
All my love is waiting for somebody like you (You)
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time

Hand me another drink just to waste some time
Ain't never been a cheat but you're on my mind
And I gotta fix it, baby
I think me and old girl about to meet the end
But I'd rather do that than to play pretend
With someone who don't love me unconditionally

But then there's you looking like you do
Giving me all the vibes, the ones that I'm into
You know I got a girl and I can't get with you
Maybe another lifetime, this just ain't the right time

All my love is waiting for somebody like you (You)
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time
All my love is waiting for somebody like you (You)
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time

But then there's you looking like you do
Giving me all the vibes, the ones that I'm into
You know I got a girl and I can't get with you
Maybe another lifetime, this just ain't the right time
It's not the time (Time)
It's not the time ('Cause all my love)

All my love is waiting for somebody like you
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time
All my love is waiting for somebody like you (You)
Somebody I can give it all to, but right now ain't the right time
