Mhm

Been waiting for hours for you to get back
Patiently waiting for you to hit that
I don't know how you went missing
I called, I guess you missed it
Then all of a sudden you came in the door and kissed it

Now, normally you do the foreplay
You skipped it, but I ain't tripping
I had a long day, so I'm with it
Still something's feeling strange
The way you touch it, babe
It feels brand new, something ain't the same

Can't stop cause it feels so good
I'm worried, 'cause you fucking me like a stranger
'Cause you fucking me like a stranger
Why you fucking me like

The room is spinning, what the hell is going on?
It feels so good, it should be right, but something's wrong
I wanna stop, but you going strong
Something's up, 'cause you fucking me like a stranger

I can't even think right now
'Cause of the way you hitting the spot right now
Baby, you wanna change it up
Keep me on my toes and stuff
But that ain't true, you the same dude from five years ago

This shit right here, you done, done before
But now [?] where the hell you learn it from?
You biting, you scratching, you grabbing
You have it, you gettin' it good [?] like you never had it

Can't stop cause it feels so good
I'm worried, 'cause you fucking me like a stranger
'Cause you fucking me like a stranger
Why you fucking me like

The room is spinning, what the hell is going on?
It feels so good, it should be right, but something's wrong
I wanna stop, but you going strong
Something's up, 'cause you fucking me like a stranger
