

I can't find the words yet
I haven't found the nerve yet
I can't figure out what to say
To make sure that we're on the same page
We took some time away then
We found a way to grow and
We hadn't finished off our play
And now we're back doing the same old thing
But if we gon' do this
I mean really gonna do this
You gotta be all in like I am

Cause you know that time isn't on our side
Are you down to ride, with me?
We don't know what's left
Don't want no regrets
So are you down to ride, one last time

I sit and think, unconsciously about her
Can't get it out of mind
How you could ever give her
Any of the things, you've gave to me
But I forgave you so, I had to let it go
Or we'll have nothing to show for it

Cause you know that time isn't on our side
So are you down to ride, with me?
We don't know what's left
Don't want no regrets
So are you down to ride, one last time

Time is the only currency that worth everything
And yet cost nothing
Something you can waste away and never get back
It moves without you
Whether you're ready or not
Don't waste it
