Waiting

Asiahn

Baby, I wonder where you've been
I miss you, it's so hard to admit it

'Cause it's been months since I last saw you
Months since I last called you and we made love
But I think it's time to leave the past behind

So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
Yeah, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
'Cause the way my body set up, I can't get enough of you, babe
So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, so come through

Why don't you pull up? (pull up, pull up, pull up)
Come on and pull up on me (yeah)
Pushing my pride right to the side
Come on and put it on me now let's go
We could make a mess, you know how that go
Sweat out my hair just so I know
Fuck this dress you know how I roll
Oh

'Cause it's been months since I last saw you
Months since I last called you or screamed your name
But I think it's time to leave the past behind

So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
Yeah, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
'Cause the way my body set up, I can't get enough of you, babe
So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, so come through, come thr ough

Would you mind if I sing for you?
Uh, would you mind if I touch you too?
'Cause I'll be waiting, waiting, waiting here for you
So, come through

So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
Yeah, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, waiting for you
'Cause the way my body set up, I can't get enough of you, babe
So, I'll be waiting waiting, waiting, so come through, come thr
ough
