Tu Meri

Asian Dub Foundation

Tu meri me tera You are mine and I am yours Standing together Side by side I'm not your shadow But I could be your guide Stick with me in this time of insanity Working together to survive this reality Without you I don't think I could bear Belief in myself man You take me there You see me as I am And what I wanna be The hopes for myself Yes, you are the key And when I'm on the mic I don't have to chat shit Guns or cars or the size of my prick Your inspiration makes me rap wisely Like Tunes for a cold (!) You make me think clearly Asian sisters shouldn't hear slackness But conscious lyrics like Sounds of Blackness Asian brothers Come listen to me Respect your sisters if you wanna be free I will never forget The love you have given Sacrificed for the life we are living The greatest wealth That no-one can steal In health and in sickness No amount of wickedness Woulda stand in your way I will never forget How you struggled to allow us To see a better day. Standing together Side by side I'm not you shadow But I could be your guide Stick with me in this time of insanity Working together to survive this reality Without you I don't think I could bear Belief in myself man You take me there You see me as I am And what I wanna be The hopes for myself Yes you are the key And when I'm on the mic I don't have to chat shit Guns or cars Or the size of my prick Your inspiration makes me rap wisely Likes Tunes for a cold (!)
