Asking Alexandria

This is hell for me to say
But I think it's time we said
"Enough's, enough"
Turn around and waltz away

You became my friend
They'll never cause you pain again

We can't surrender
We won't surrender
Though we'd hate to run away
We can't run away from them all
We can't surrender
We won't surrender
They'll bleed for what they've

Done to us
They shut us out for long enough
In the dark
I want to watch this

Listen, can't you hear them screaming?
They're buried in the walls
Now they're never leaving
They can never hurt us again

Peeling the scab
From each and every
Last one of them
Screeching
A moment alone in silence

Blood
Blood
Blood
Blood

Blood is seeping
From the fingers
That are wrapped
around my arm
Silent
Braced myself a lifetime
This is what I've Been waiting for

Listen, can't you hear them screaming?
They're buried in the walls
Now they're never leaving
They can never hurt us again

They're dead, they're dead
They're dead just like I dreamed of Sleeping softly-never to awaken
Dead, they're dead
They're gone into the shadows
Never to be seen again
