

Down to Hell

Asking Alexandria

(Let's go)

I don't know what you've heard
But I'm a cannon, I'm loose, I'm a wildfire
I don't care what you think
About where I choose to draw my line
Sociopath, self-absorbed, egotistical asshole
Don't waste your breath
It's not a secret, believe it

Move aside, make a hole
For a waste of potential
Move along, nothing to see here
Don't pay too much attention
I'm coming up
I'm going down to hell

You can say what you want about me
I stay cool, talking ice cold
You can want what I'm not or what I was
I can't hear you through the new sound
Insufferable, emotional graveyard, pretentious dick
Don't waste your time
It's not a secret, believe it

I'm going down, I'm going down, I'm going down
I'm going down, I'm going down (Way down)

Move aside, make a hole
For a waste of potential
Move along, nothing to see here
Don't pay too much attention
I'm coming up
I'm going down to hell

I wanna find
Somewhere to lose my mind
Dig around inside
And go a little crazy
I wanna find
Somewhere to lose my mind
Dig around inside
And go a little crazy

Move aside, make a hole
For a waste of potential
Move along, nothing to see here
Don't pay too much attention
I'm coming up
I'm going down to hell
I'm going down to hell
