

Feel

Asking Alexandria

I, I've never been afraid of the light
When my heart stops beating
(Heart stops beating, heart stops beating)
(Beating, beating, beating)

Everything is broken, nothing seems to work
All these faded memories buried in the dirt
And I don't know, God knows how
I'm still here, without you

'Cause your ghost in the past comes alive tonight

I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past
I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past

I, I've been trapped in this hole
I tried to get out and get better
Everything you told me was a lie

Everything is broken, nothing seems to work
All these faded memories buried in the dirt
And I don't know, God knows how
I'm still here, without you

I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past
I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past

'Cause your ghost in the past comes alive tonight

As my ghost comes alive tonight

I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past
I can feel the cold drip on your bones
I can feel the ghost inside my soul
Oh, I can feel the blood as the night falls
I'm haunted by the ghost of my past
