

When the Lights Come On

Asking Alexandria

There's a world passed the curtains of eager excitement
A sea of impatience, awaiting incitement
It's all so enticing, it's so mesmerizing
It's so hypnotizing, the rhythmic beguiling

Woah, oh, oh
Bring the house down
Woah, oh, oh
Breathe in, out
In, out
In, out

When the lights come on, when the crowd goes wild
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere
Stand up and scream it loud when the fire flies
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere

After sitting and waiting and anticipating
The energy through the walls reverberating
It's so captivating, the buzz generated
It's invigorating, I feel elevated

Woah, oh, oh
Bring the house down
Woah, oh, oh
Breathe in, out
In, out
In, out

When the lights come on, when the crowd goes wild
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere
Stand up and scream it loud when the fire flies
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere

When the lights come on, when the crowd goes wild
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere
Stand up and scream it loud when the fire flies
Rip the roof up off of here, take it to the stratosphere
To the stratosphere

To the stratosphere
