

I Wonder

Asleep At The Wheel

Every time I'm near you my heart jumps all about
My mind can't figure out what to do
But I've been disillusioned enough by love turned blue
Your love could be true but I wonder

Am I supposed to think your love will be true
And deny the part of me that says you'll leave me too
Cause yesterday reminds me that what I've lost is gone

Your love may linger on but I wonder

I heard all your stories they ring well in my ears
But raise certain fears and doubts
Cause yesterday reminds me that what I've lost is gone
Your love may linger on but I wonder
I wonder yeah I wonder
