

Rockin' Rodeo

Asleep At The Wheel

Ooh-ha!
Hold on a minute
Let it go

First you learn to ride an open wrestle demon steers
Than you start to rodeo for fun, and girls, and beers
Pretty soon, you're out there riding in your local county fair
Doing things that other folks would never even dare

It's that hard hip-on-side
Split 'n' driven rockin' rollin' rodeo

It's the smell of the salt dust and
Tension in the air
It's pressure from your buddies on
The answer to a dare

That keeps you on the road now
Nearly ten months of the year
Throwing all the wives in the broken
And a man who knows no fear

It's that heart stopping, neck-popping
Real and rockin' rollin' rodeo

Hold on tight now, this could be the night
You latch on to a winner
No more eating beans for dinner
Let her rip, let her rock, let her roll
There's nothing like
A riven rockin' rollin' rodeo

Ooh-ha!

Hold on tight now, this could be the night
You latch on to a winner
No more eating beans for dinner
Let her rip, let her rock, let her roll
There's nothing like
A riven rockin' rollin' rodeo

One more go 'round
Adios vaquero
