

Runnin' After Fools

Asleep At The Wheel

You call me backward, I don't fit in your plan
So I'm standing in a corner trying to understand
How a sweet girl like you can waste all her time
Running after fools when you could be mine

You're running after fools who don't love you like I do
Why does a cute little lass always look for greener grass
You're running after fools and you won't ever stop
Till there's one as big as you and then you're gonna get caught

-- Piano --

You call me shabby, you say my hair is not in style
Well the pants may be baggy, but it could be worth your while
'Cause a sweet girl like you should not waste all her time
Running after fools when you could be mine

You're running after fools who don't love you like I do...
