

The Trouble With Loving Today

Asleep At The Wheel

I wonder if he knows what I'm thinkin'
I wonder if she knows why I'm drinkin'

We wonder a lot but we never say
What we are wonderin', worryin' over
I guess that's the trouble with lovin' today

I feel that she don't really know me
Oh, and I feel that he's ignoring me

We feel a lot but we never say
What we are feelin', feelin' inside
I guess that's the trouble with lovin' today

I tell my pillow that I'll live without you
I tell my glass, I like it this way

We tell our hearts we're not really missin'
What we are wantin', needin' so badly
I guess that's the trouble with lovin' today

We tell our hearts we're not really missin'
What we are wonderin', worryin' over
What we are wantin', needin' so badly
I guess that's the trouble with lovin' today

What we are feelin', feelin' inside
I guess that's the trouble with lovin' today
