

You're From Texas

Asleep At The Wheel

Pardon me stranger I hope there's no danger
You'll think I'm getting off of my range
Oh but I calculate that you're from my state
And though you may think it's strange

I allow as how you're from Texas
Because the lingo I understand
I'll bet my kale that you hail from Texas
There's no mistaking the brand

You've got a smile like an acre of sunflowers
Your eyes are blue bonnet blue
Shake hands it's grand that you're from Texas
'Cause I'm from Texas too

Your eyes are blue bonnet blue
Shake hands it's grand that you're from Texas
'Cause I'm from Texas too
