Asobi Seksu

I've got nothing to show
In these hands of mine
But I've no reasons left to stay behind
Oh, please, don't let me leave this life

And let the light come in
Oh, let the light come in

I can't look beyond
To the end
So I'll turn to look behind
These strings I can't untie

How come you have no reasons
Left to stay with me
But please, don't leave me here with nothing

And let the light come in
Oh, let the light come in

There's no reason why to look at me so sadly
When I cry for you
These noises are so maddening
The light burns the hallways
Screaming out for you
