

Ghost

Asrai

you feed the hunger in me and you're poison for my needs I'm restless inside is that what you desire?

you're like venom in my veins

Like a ghost in my mind you disappear in daylight
one hand's on fire,
the other turns to ice
like a ghost in my head you challenge my resistance and I lose time
I never can revive

and come alive

The shadow's just is a hidden light no chance to hush the lullaby your face has lost it's name And I cry out loud

you're the venom in my veins

Like a ghost in my mind
one hand's on fire,
you challenge my resistance

Hey, could you sleep last night or did the silence wake you up?
I was lost in broken dreams they just don't seem to get enough of dreamers and believers your craving surely eat all up and then we'll see what's left of us and if the torture finally stops

one hand's on fire,
