

Epiphany

Assemblage 23

A sense of existential dread
Permeates my aching head
It sounds a deafening alarm
A ticking timebomb to disarm

My breakpoint has come and gone
I have no choice, but to move on
I brace myself for what's to come

I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
This isn't what I signed up for
This is misery
I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
The nadir I could not ignore
My epiphany

A creeping sense that something's wrong...
...has followed me for far too long
Awaken, sleeper from your dream...
...that flickers dimly still onscreen

My breakpoint has come and gone
I have no choice, but to move on
I brace myself for what's to come

I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
This isn't what I signed up for
This is misery
I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
The nadir I could not ignore
My epiphany

How did I let it get so bad...
...with all the chances that I had?
Why did I let this wait so long...
...when all it ever felt was wrong

My breakpoint has come and gone
I have no choice, but to move on
I brace myself for what's to come

I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
This isn't what I signed up for
This is misery
I just can't take it anymore
This is killing me
The nadir I could not ignore
My epiphany
