Bitter

Assuming We Survive

Pardon my reaction
You can call it a curse if you want to
There's no satisfaction in being more than what I'm used to I've been a monster, I've been a saint
I've been the truth and I've been a fake
I've had a gun to my head, I thought I'd be dead by now

So if I close my eyes will I still see the morning?
Truth is I will never know
I'm going to live my life like there's no tomorrow

Follow my dreams 'cause they just might follow me back
I'm going to take what I can and never look in the mirror
Follow my dreams 'cause they just might follow me back
And if I don't take a chance then I might be bitter

Don't change who you are
You got to live like you mean it
Learn from all the scars that cover your broken heart

So when you close your eyes will you still see the morning?
Truth is you will never know
You got to live your life like there's no tomorrow

Follow your dreams 'cause they just might follow you back
You got to take what you can and never look in the mirror
Follow your dreams 'cause they just might follow you back
And if you don't take a chance then you might be bitter

Live life for yourself
Don't give up and cover up your bruises
Live life for yourself
Don't give up and cover up your bruises

So if I close my eyes will I still see the morning?
Truth is I will never know
I'm going to live my life like there's no tomorrow

Follow your dreams 'cause they just might follow you back
You got to take what you can and never look in the mirror
Follow your dreams 'cause they just might follow you back
And if you don't take a chance then you might be bitter

Don't give up
Cover up your bruises
Don't give up
Cover up your bruises
